THE PRAYER GUIDE highlights a different associational mission for each day of the week with a photo of the RBA staff member and specific prayer requests relating to that ministry. The use of the prayer guides for a week is an excellent way for a congregation, Sunday School class or missions group to get to know the staff and ministries of the RBA. The Guide is formatted so that it can be used for any seven-day period during the year, not just during the official Week of Prayer for Associational Missions which is May 15-22, 2011.

FROM YOUR DOM, MIKE ROBINSON

Greetings All:

In Numbers 12:1-15 God called Moses, Aaron and Miriam to go to the Tabernacle to meet with Him in the place that symbolized His presence. For Aaron and Miriam it was a call to rebuke and discipline; God, the loving parent, was taking them to the woodshed! Miriam and Aaron had been criticizing Moses face-to-face and Miriam appears to have been the chief instigator of attacks upon God's servant. When the three reached the Tabernacle, the cloud of Shekinah glory – the presence of God – dramatically descended to exercise judgment. Stricken with fear, Miriam and Aaron were summoned to step forward toward God.

God strongly rebuked them and defended His unique call to His dear servant, Moses, who was extremely faithful to both the Lord and the ministry to which God had called him (Num. 12:7).

God told them that other prophets would hear from Him in dreams and visions, but not Moses! Because of Moses' faithfulness, He would speak openly and directly, not in riddles, and that he was even allowed to see the "form of the Lord." Moses saw a form, a shape, a cloudy image of God, not the very being of God, but far more than was allowed others.

During her quarter-century as Community Missionary on behalf of God and the Richmond Baptist Association family, Margaret Allen has again and again witnessed the "form of God" as she touched with grace, hope and compassion the lives of thousands from within our city. Her gentle spirit, joyous smile, bright eyes and words of kind encouragement have lightened the load for untold numbers. She has pointed countless souls toward the God Who takes brokenness and replaces it with newness and wholeness. Margaret has personified love and patience for Him and for us. With exemplary faithfulness she has represented all of us to "the least." When we could not be there, she was!

I am so grateful for the deep intimacy of Margaret's relationship with God. Her openness to His guidance as well as the direct, on-going communication with Him that characterizes her life has empowered the work that she has done in our city.

Margaret, you are a dear servant who has been so extremely faithful to both the Lord and the ministry to which God has called you. I cannot tell you how much you will be missed by Richmond Baptists and by all you have served lovingly.

But you have certainly earned your retirement! So we all wish you well and pledge for you our continued prayers! May God bless you and your family richly!

Mike

May 3: The "Transformational Church" Roadmap: David Burt, former DOM with a heartbeat for associations and the local church, was a compiler and part of the research team for the book Transformational Church. David, consultant with the Sunday School Board, Nashville, TN, can speak with ease to both large and small church settings about the map and benefits to being a transformational church.

June 7: "Huddles" may be the closest thing to powerfully multiplying the ministry of your church on a shoestring. John Chandler has some exciting news to share about how "Huddles" greatly expand the influence of just a few individuals in tremendously flexible ways. Based on a model of Jesus' interactions with His disciples, "Huddles" provide an environment of encouragement and grace that is easily reproducible.

Announcing the Annual Meeting
Virginia Baptist Historical Society

"Sing Praises Old & New"

Lift Your Voice with Others at the

Hymn Festival

Tuesday, May 17
7:30 p.m.

Grace Baptist Church

4200 Dover Road, Richmond
In beautiful Windsor Farms off Cary Street Road

The Hymn Festival is the main feature of the annual meeting of the Virginia Baptist Historical Society and is free and open to all who enjoy congregational singing and who are willing to lift their voices to "Sing Praises Old & New."

Old hymns with new presentations will be included as well as new texts and tunes with which to praise God.

The Hymn Festival will be led by two church music professors: Deborah C. Loftis, Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond, and William "Bill" Roberts of the Virginia Theological Seminary, the Episcopal seminary in Alexandria.

For information call the Virginia Baptist Historical Society at 804-289-8434.

ENCOURAGEMENT!

When the North American Mission Board launched the new evangelism initiative "God's Plan for Sharing" (GPS), LifeWay Research conducted a survey asking more than 15,000 Americans about different methods of church outreach. According to Ed Stetzer, LifeWay Research president and missiologist, research uncovered the top five ways Americans are willing to receive information about a local congregation:

5. Newspaper or magazine advertising: 46%
4. Outdoor sign or billboard: 46%
3. Informative ad in the newspaper: 48%
2. Personal conversation with a friend or neighbor from the church: 56%

The most effective method?

Personal conversation with a family member: 63%

Invitations from family or friends, then, are the most effective method for reaching out, while only twenty-five percent of Americans appreciate an unannounced visit to their home.

Stetzer, in an article entitled "An evangelism strategy that sticks" tells us that there are five times that people are most open to considering matters of faith:

5. After the birth of a baby: 28%
4. After a natural disaster: 34%
3. After a major national crisis: 38%
2. During the Easter holiday season: 38%
1. During the Christmas holiday season: 47%

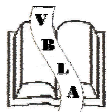

"Timing matters," says Stetzer!

What is the encouragement here! Many of the unchurched are ready to talk about Jesus. Marketing and advertising provide important tools that can support the efforts of a church, but they are no replacement for the significance of personal relationships as the most effective approach.

"Sharing the gospel with an entire community can seem an insurmountable task. But the findings in the study remind us that people are more receptive than we may have thought. And, despite all of our high-powered, high-dollar endeavors, it is in the simplest of circumstances that Christ is shared: one conversation at a time. Many are ready to talk about Jesus, especially if you have a relationship with that person."

BUDGET REQUESTS FOR 2011

All requests for budget funds for 2011 must be turned in to the RBA office by Friday, May 13 to be considered for inclusion in next year's budget. The Budget Sub-group must prepare a 2012 budget proposal to be presented to the Administrative Council meeting on July 18, 2011. If you should need assistance in preparing your budget request, please contact the RBA Financial Coordinator, Mrs. Tenny Farnen (329-1701 ext. 205) right away. Thank you for your assistance with this matter.

CALLING ALL COOKS!

Good food is something we, as Baptists, can all appreciate!

Between fellowship time, potluck dinners, and Sunday afternoon luncheons, we have plenty of opportunities to show off our cooking. It's our chance to either experiment or use the same, time-honored recipes passed down through generations. So why not share our good cooking with others?

The Virginia Baptist Mission Board and Woman's Missionary Union of Virginia are seeking a few good recipes to go into a new Virginia Baptist Cookbook to be available at the November BGAV Connect: 2011 annual meeting in Richmond.

All proceeds will go toward a specific Virginia Baptist hunger-related ministry. If each of our 1,400 BGAV churches submitted a recipe, think of the possibilities that could be at our fingertips!

Please submit your recipes (as many as you like!) to Paige Peak at paige.peak@vbmb.org by July 1, 2011. We look forward to seeing what you all dish up!

Memories of Ministry at the South Richmond Baptist Center
By Margaret J. Allen, Community Missionary

"You are like light for the whole world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid." -- Matthew 5: 14 (GNB)

The South Richmond Baptist Center has been an agent of hope, encouragement and inspiration to many over the years. In crises, the center was an agent of hope to an older man who was stabbed and robbed, to a mother during the time when her son was being arraigned in court and to an elderly mother as she searched for her missing son. I remember the story of the missing son as though it was yesterday. Our search took us from Chippenham Hospital to a detective who sent us to the Medical Examiner Office. We found out that her son was there and that he had passed away in the emergency room of Chippenham Hospital. It was not easy for her or me to sit there as the investigator answered our questions and read a portion of the report to us. Yet in the midst of this mother's hurt and pain, she turned to me and said that this is so kind of you to do this for me. You know just where to go and what to ask. She then added that the center was such a blessing to her.

I remember the silence in the car as I accompanied a mother home from court after her son was arraigned and was to be tried as an adult. I remember the pain on her face as we said good bye. I always believed that her son was innocent but was in the wrong place, with the wrong people at the wrong time and his parents could not afford a lawyer to fight for him.

I also remember being told of an elderly man in the community who was stabbed and robbed and had no one to care for him. The center was there to see that he had food and the care that he needed until his family from another state arrived and took him home.

The center has not only been an agent of hope to those in crises but also encouragement to those who were seeking to better themselves. For example, a young mother with three children had a full time job and continued her education until she received her high school diploma. The center assisted her with transportation and other needs as they arrived. The one thing I remember about this mother was her strong faith in God and her ability to witness to others in her community.

The center has also been an inspiration to children. I remember a little girl who had received certificates for pizza at Pizza Hut for books she had read. She was about to throw them away and I asked why. She replied because there is no one to take me to a Pizza Hut. I remember after taking her to Pizza Hut she was inspired to read more books.

These are some examples and there are many more of how God has used the center as an agent of hope, encouragement and inspiration. I thank God that each of these individuals was able to see the center as a place of his love and care for all people. The South Richmond Baptist Center has been similar to the light as spoken of in Matthew. People have seen its good works and have given praises to God. I thank God for the opportunity that was provided for me to be his witness at the South Richmond Baptist Center.
